Rev. White preached his first sermon in America at Lumbe North Carolina on the first Sunday in November 1807. H 1824 on a mission trip to Pender County and was buried 100 years. His remains were moved to Spring Hill C Wagram, North Carolina by his great-grandson Li Johnson.²

Catharine Campbell, or Grandma White, was born on C Day, 1786. She lived on for many years after Daniel's dea matriarch of a growing family; she saw General W. T. S army march through Scotland County on its way back No Charleston (following the capture and burning of Atlanta). in 1867 and is buried at the Riverton family cemetery near

From a baptismal record found by a genealogist hired Madry Zimmerman: "Baptism: Whyte, Donal 16 May 1776 son of Donald Whyte and Janet McKillen, spouse [in] Gorton. Born May 15, 1776." According to the genealogis now Rhu, and Donald is a synonym for Daniel. We certain this is our ancestor, however.
